Brent Maxwell resides in West Mansfield, OH, where he and his wife own and operate Mil Max Training Center. His daughter, Ellexah, is also an avid equestrian. He has been an AQHA and NSBA judge for five and four years, respectively, and he has judged in Australia and Canada and is on AQHA's Team Wrangler as a Professional Horseman. Brent has been training and showing All Around horses for many years, with a primary focus on showmanship, horsemanship, equitation, trail, western riding, western pleasure, hunter under saddle and halter. They have had AQHA World Champions, Congress Champions and High point earners. Brent has done clinics at the All American Quarter Horse Congress, for various organizations and private farms and at the 2016 Youth World Cup. We are honored to have him join us.

Penn State encourages persons with disabilities to participate in its programs and activities. If you anticipate needing any type of accommodation or have questions about the physical access provided, please contact Andrea Kocher at 814-863-3957 in advance of your participation or visit. This publication is available in alternative media on request.

The University is committed to equal access to programs, facilities, admission and employment for all persons. It is the policy of the University to maintain an environment free of harassment and free of discrimination against any person because of age, race, color, ancestry, national origin, religion, creed, service in the uniformed services (as defined in state and federal law), veteran status, sex, sexual orientation, marital or family status, pregnancy, pregnancy-related conditions, physical or mental disability, gender, perceived gender, gender identity, genetic information or political ideas. Discriminatory conduct and harassment, as well as sexual misconduct and relationship violence, violates the dignity of individuals, impedes the realization of the University's educational mission, and will not be tolerated. Direct all inquiries regarding the nondiscrimination policy to Dr. Kenneth Lehrman III, Vice Provost for Affirmative Action, Affirmative Action Office, The Pennsylvania State University, 328 Boucke Building, University Park, PA 16802-5901, Email: kfl2@psu.edu, Tel (814) 863-0471.
